

57th Ashwell Music Festival

Saturday 22nd to Sunday 30th May 2010

Saturday, 22nd May 7.30pm
Fodens Brass Band

St Mary's Church
Fodens is currently the highest ranked band in England and the second in the world so we are in for an evening of simply outstanding music. The band will cover many traditional and contemporary styles and include breathtaking soloists and music to leave you simply in raptures - this will almost certainly be a 'sell-out' so get your tickets soon to avoid disappointment.

Sunday, 23rd May 7.00pm
Cantate Choir

St Mary's Church
This choir has a big following for good reasons and we are pleased to welcome Cantate again to the Music Festival. During the interval tonight we will be serving delicious canapés thanks to Capers Catering.

Tuesday, 25th May 7.30pm
Young Musicians' Concert

St Mary's Church
An evening that celebrates the talents of local young people from Ashwell Primary School, Knights Templar School and the Ashwell Church Junior Choir.

Sung Compline

St Mary's Church
Tonight's concert will be followed by the gentlemen of St Mary's Choir singing the ancient plainsong service of Compline.

Thursday, 27th May 7.30pm
Classics and Jazz

St Mary's Church
Cassandra Mansi, Viola
Tonight we will hear a mixed classical programme showing off the beauty of the viola including music from Bach, Brahms, Bowen and Schumann.

The James Pearson Trio

The James Pearson Trio is one of the finest jazz trios in Europe. For the past three years the trio has regularly performed as the 'house trio' at the historic Jazz Club Ronnie Scott's in London. For an amazing evening of Funky-Jazzy-Swinging-Groovy brilliant piano playing - don't miss.

Saturday, 29th May 7.30pm
The Bohemians 'Queen Tribute Band'

St Mary's Church
The Bohemians are a favourite with the 'official Queen fan club' as they were the first Queen tribute look-a-likes to headline the 'Queen fan club' convention with an audience of over 2,000 ardent Queen fans!! Queen guitarist, Brian May, described the band as 'brilliant'. The high energy show they perform has earned them the reputation of the worlds 'most exciting' Queen tribute act ... and they are coming to Ashwell. A night not to be forgotten ... or missed. We expect this night to be a sell-out so you will need to get your tickets in advance.

Sunday, 30th May 6.30pm
Festal Evensong

St Mary's Church
A traditional 1662 full choral Evensong with Guest Conductor, Organist and Preacher and, on this the 100th year of the birth of Canon Jack Catterick who started the Music Festival, it is our delight to have Fr. Matthew Catterick, Jack's grandson, to preach for us this evening. 'Our choir at its best.'
Music including: John Ireland, William Harris, Hugh Blair, William Smith and Francesco Soriano
Music Director: Judith Catterick
Guest Conductor: David Hill
Conductor of the BBC Singers
Guest Organist: Paul Bryan
Organist, Ely Cathedral Octagon Singers
Guest Preacher: Fr. Matthew Catterick
from the Church of the Ascension, Wembley
